Reviews/ Awards:

Halliday Wine Companion, Philip Rich, 94 points: "A bright crimson purple. Fragrant and immediately appealing with its aromas of strawberry puree, raspberries and gentle spice. The bright, light- to medium-bodied palate is well weighted with crunchy and refreshing tannins, rounding out a wine that will continue to improve over the next 2-3 years if not longer. A single-vineyard Upper Yarra pinot at this price is a steal.

The Wine Front, Campbell Mattinson, 92 points: This Upper Yarra Pinot Noir is certainly light, in both colour and flavour-depth, but it has such a keen insistence through the back palate and beyond, and such an array of flavours. Herbs of various description, woody spice notes, forest berries and the tang of cranberry and strawberry. It's an inherently interesting wine, and highly engaging as a result.
